

July 31, 2006

To: R.P. Properties Real Estate Investment Group

It is our pleasure to express our appreciation for the devoted, personal and efficient approach in which your office handled the transaction on Gideon Street in Ramat Hasharon, and for the warm and pleasant manner of your staff.

In addition, we would like to mention your professionalism and courtesy. It is important to note that the high level of service provided by your agency remains constant throughout the entire process. This certainly contributes to the fine results achieved with your assistance.

Thank you for your consideration, your attention to every last detail and your warm approach.

Thank you for your helpfulness and consideration - and most importantly, for your honesty and integrity.

We shall definitely recommend your agency.

Sincerely,

Michal and Ilan Ramati